The Rivals are known on a national level for their training and development of basketball prospects. The training techniques used by the Rivals have been successful in developing prospect while at the same time expanding each individuals games. The Rivals program will have 20 Division 1 athletes competing in college basketball in the 2017-18 season. These players will play at the highest levels of college basketball in D1 and Ivy leagues. This level of coaching will now be at The Rim where player development is our #1 priority. We offer more than any other program around. You will get results with our program doing things "The Rivals Way."
